HOW TO ADD OR EDIT COUNTRY AND AGE RESTRICTIONS FOR YOUR FACEBOOK PAGE

People with full Facebook access to Pages can add or edit country and age restrictions for their Page from their computer:

- Country restrictions: You can choose to show or hide your Page only to people in some countries.
- Age restrictions: You can use age restrictions to limit the audience of your Page. For example, if the topic of your Page includes alcohol or adult products, you may consider using age restrictions.

When you add restrictions, only people who meet the requirements will see your Page. Anyone who likes your Page but doesn't fit the requirements will be deleted. You can update your Page's restrictions at any time, but people who were removed won't be added back unless they like your Page again.

Keep in mind that if your Page has country or age restrictions:

- You may not be able to share posts to external sites.
- You and others won't be able to see your Page when logged out of Facebook.

To add or edit country and age restrictions for your Page, you'll need to have Facebook access with full control.
